

Director Ms. Ma Lixia

In 35 year teaching profession, she has insisted to unify the classroom instruction and the practice operation for bring up student's quality. It can make students to adapt the modern society. As a biology middle school teacher, in many year teaching practices, in view of student's age and the psychological characteristic, she devoted to inquires into the classroom instruction and the laboratory experiment as well as the research activity even, combining the rules of nature biology. She trained student's scientific accomplishment and the innovative ideology for a goal. In the past 20 years, she has coached pupils to complete the study 51 items. One of them got the first prize of the third session of APEC youth scientific festival international competition and the second prize of Teachers' Forum. Two items got the second prize of the ISEF. Two items got the second prize in Russian and the European Union international competition. Twelve items got the first prize of the national young people scientific innovation and the national young scientist competition. Eight items won the second prize of and three items won the third prize. Nineteen items won the first prize of Beijing scientific innovation and eight items won the second prize.

